

Helpful Pronoun Chart

Pronouns Replace Nouns

	Personal Pronouns				Reflexive
	Subjective Pronouns	Objective Pronouns	Possessive Adjectives	Possessive Pronouns	Reflexive Pronouns
	Also known as nominative or subjective. Used mainly for subjects, but can also be predicate nouns.	Can be used as direct objects, object of the preposition, indirect objects.	Modifiers: Pronouns used as adjectives that show possession.	Independent: Used as predicate adjectives with linking verbs or direct object with transitive verbs.	Can be used as direct objects, object of the preposition, indirect objects and sometimes as predicate nouns.
1st person singular
2nd person singular
3rd person singular masculine
3rd person singular feminine
3rd person singular neuter
1st person plural
2nd person plural
3rd person plural
Pronoun Test	___ will dance.	Carrie saw ___	That's ___ car.	The car is ___ He drove ___	(Subject) saw _____